Welcome to this year's West Wycombe Chamber Music Festival!

I will once again be joined by some of the world's most exciting musicians in five wide ranging concerts that will explore music inspired by Fairy tales, Myths and Legends.

Thursday 19th September at 7.30pm | 'MYSTERIOUS BARRICADES'

Join us for an enchanting journey taking in Couperin's enigmatic masterpiece as well as two cornerstones of the repertoire by Brahms and Mozart, both looking back through the mists of time for their inspiration.

Friday 20th September at 1pm | 'DOUBLE DOUBLE TOIL AND TROUBLE'

Three magical stories by Shakespeare, Zhukovsky and H C Anderson, each one inspiring works by Janacek, Beethoven and Stravinsky. Actress Anna Madeley (All Creatures Great and Small) guides us through this enchanting afternoon.

Friday 20th September at 7.30pm | 'INNER VOICES'

Five deeply personal and contrasting works, each inspired by various aspects of introspection. From Hermann's iconic film score for 'Psycho' to Schumann's glittering Piano Quintet.

Saturday 21st September at 11.30am | 'GULLIVERS TRAVELS'

Join some of today's most talented young musicians for this magical voyage around the world and beyond. Gulliver Suite and other magical works by Prokofiev, Ravel, Dvorak and Faure.

Saturday 21st September at 8pm | 'FAIRYTALE DANCES'

This year's 'Enchanted' festival finale concludes with Dvorak's radiant Piano Quintet and also includes Thomas Ades own Fairytale Dances based on English Folksongs, Britten's heroic 'Young Apollo' and Mozart's masterful Piano Concerto K488.

I so look forward to seeing you there.

Lawrence Power
