Our Christmas concert this year celebrates the music of composers who have lived and worked in Hammersmith and the surrounding area. Featuring a wide range of seasonal music, from Holst, Howells and Gardner – who served consecutively as Director of Music at St Paul's Girls' School from 1905 to 1975 – to contemporary composers, Cecilia McDowell and Kerensa Briggs.

Join us for candlelight, mulled wine, mince pies and audience carols, and get the festive season off to a great start!

Petros Singers is West London's leading amateur chamber choir. We perform a wide variety of music – from baroque to contemporary, from large-scale works to exquisite miniatures – placing particular emphasis on vibrant and communicative singing.

Richard Bannan was a choral scholar at Clare College, Cambridge before embarking on a career as a professional vocal musician, arranger and teacher. He now sings as a Lay-Clerk at St George's Chapel, Windsor and with many of the country's major professional ensembles.

Alex Knight combines a bustling freelance career as an organist, pianist, continuo player, conductor, music producer and teacher with his posts as Accompanist for Petros Singers, Organ Scholar at St Paul's Cathedral, and Musical Director for the Treble Chefs.
